

One Smart Move! Money Management Education Schedule - May to December 2010

These workshops are brought to you by specialists in financial education.

They are FREE, unless a charge is noted. Please register at least two days prior to the workshop date.

Money Smart - a 10-hour series covering spending plans, saving, credit, consumer protection issues, financial institutions and accounts.

Qualifies as an IDA-required financial education course. Participants may attend the full series to receive a certificate or simply attend the classes of interest. Offered by Extension, Urban League, War On Poverty, and Community Action Agency.

Fresh Accounts - a 6-hour class for managing checking accounts. Completion of this course qualifies you to open an account at a participating financial institution if you have been denied opening an account, want to learn how to avoid fees on current accounts, or have never had an account before and want to do it right. Also covers budgeting to reach your goals. Taught by Duval County Extension Service.

Dollar Decisions - Covers financial goals, tracking systems, writing a spending and saving plan, and finding money to make ends meet.

Home Buyer Education - Before you purchase, find out about the process. Avoid predatory lending and learn to make wise choices. Cost: $50.00.

Small Business classes are listed on the website: www.eecjacksonville.com
